THE 2000 SF REGIONAL SCHOLASTIC ART & WRITING AWARDS

This year's work submitted to the 2000 San Francisco Youth Arts Festival will be reviewed by local art jurors for submission to the year 2001 National Scholastic Art & Writing Awards, a national arts recognition program.

Over 225,000 entries are submitted each year to the National Scholastic Awards Program. Scholarships are awarded to winning high school students submitting work in many categories from mixed media, sculpture, crafts, textile art, computer graphics, video & film, painting & drawing, photography, environmental design, and commercial arts. Submission for writing awards include poetry, short stories, essays, scripts, science fiction, and writing portfolios.

The Youth Arts Festival has developed a Regional Program to encourage and recognize students in the visual and literary arts by providing financial support, administrative support, and community involvement with the project. This includes sponsorship fees, mailings, processing and shipping of artwork to New York and returning all artwork to their schools. The San Francisco Youth Arts Festival is the regional showcase for student, teacher, and school recognition within the community and gives the public a chance to celebrate art education in their schools. Only students grades 7-11 who submit work to the 2000 San Francisco Youth Arts Festival are eligible for participation in the National Scholastic Art & Writing Awards Program. Senior high school students for the 2000-2001 school year are encouraged to submit art & writing portfolios to the Youth Arts Festival in January 2001 for the national program.

The San Francisco Youth Arts Festival congratulates this year's National Scholastic Art & Writing Award winners and their teachers. Their work was submitted to last year's Youth Arts Festival and was selected to represent the San Francisco Region. Visual art work will be on display at the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington D.C., from June 16, through July 21, 2000. Our winning writers are invited to read their work at the Library Of Congress.

Last year's Regional Award winners were forwarded to the national program jury and three students were chosen to represent San Francisco this year at the National Awards Program in Washington, D.C. on June 16. We wish to congratulate: Maja Ruznic, International Studies Academy, Judy Bebelar, Instructor; Yvonne Hung and Hilda Kwan from YMCA Young Artist Program, Sarah Klise, Instructor.

A special awards ceremony of The 2000 San Francisco Regional Scholastic Art & Writing Awards will be presented on May 24, 2000 in the Zeum Auditorium at the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts.
